Mayor Snead stated that the City Commission has concluded with the evaluation of the City Manager for 2006 and the City will be renewing the contract of City Manager Ron Fehr. Mayor Snead said Ron's performance was rated as exceeds standards for his performance and evaluation, particularly in the areas of Fort Riley growth response, downtown redevelopment with a successful STAR Bond award, the proposed Indoor Family and Recreation and Aquatic Center, regional relations, and unprecedented housing growth. He stated that the adjustments to Mr. Fehr's contract will include: 1) a 3 percent Cost of Living Adjustment, 2) a longevity bonus for his 25 years of service as a City employee, 3) a $17 per pay period vehicle allowance adjustment, and 4) finally, Ron's performance merited an exceeds standards performance; however, due to the Recreation Division scandal, the City Manager will be given a satisfactory performance rating with a salary increase of 1 percent. Mayor Snead stated that we look forward to a successful year in 2007.

ADJOURNMENT

At 8:12 p.m., Mayor Snead adjourned the meeting.
