Kansas State University, formerly Kansas State Agricultural College, celebrated 150 years of distinguished service in 2013 as a leading example of a successful system of land-grant universities developed throughout the United States. Its campus contains over 315 acres and beyond the campus are more than 4,000 acres of university land used for experimental work in agriculture. Kansas State University is fully accredited by the North Central Accrediting Association and by various professional accrediting agencies. The University has an enrollment of 24,766 students for the fall of 2014, an increase of 185 students over fall 2013.

Military Activity - Fort Riley

Founded in 1853, Fort Riley is a military installation 15 miles west of Manhattan. Originally known as Camp Center, Fort Riley is a permanent post and has long been one of the nation's largest military installations. Today, the installation covers more than 101,000 acres with a military strength of more than 17,000 soldiers. In addition to the military personnel at Fort Riley, nearly 7,100 civilian employees work on the installation. Annually, Fort Riley provides training assistance to thousands of Reserve Component soldiers, including the Army National Guard, US Army Reserves, Navy Reserves, Marine Reserves, Reserve Officer Training Corps, Air Guard, and individuals conducting individual training or attending schools.

The Base Realignment and Closure and the Global Repositioning process has caused significant growth to Fort Riley in recent years. Fort Riley has grown from approximately 9,500 soldiers in 2005 to more than 17,000 soldiers, with a total population of approximately 53,000, including off-post dependents, employees, and retirees. This growth in turn has created notable growth in the Manhattan community and surrounding areas.

During Fort Riley's service to the nation, many legendary and historic characters have been intertwined with the Fort's history. Some of the more famous were Buffalo Bill Cody, Wild Bill Hickock, George Armstrong Custer, and the famous 7th Cavalry of the early frontier days; Civil War heroes J.E.B. Stuart and Phillip St. George Cook; General "Blackjack" Pershing of World War I; Generals Wainwright, Patton, and Terry Allen of World War II; and Major General Thomas Rhame of the Persian Gulf War.
